

Please keep XM Radio the way it is. The weather reports that the issue are the best thing going. Local stations take about 15 minutes to report the weather. For once, please let the people's voice encourage you to do the right thing and do what the listeners want. Listeners, like my self, love the weather channels. So please turn away from big business and do what right, keep the XM radio weather channels.

Thank you